

Charlene Madia Butler

October 27, 1933 - January 16, 2019

Charlene M. Butler of Vancouver, WA, 85, passed away on Jan. 16th, 2019. She was born on Oct. 27th, 1933 to Mildred M. (Miller) Weir and Lloyd W. Weir in Vancouver where she lived her entire life. Charlene graduated from Vancouver High School in 1951.

She worked for the VA hospital where she met, then married, Robert E. Butler in 1953.

Charlene and Robert had four sons. She was a homemaker the rest of her life.

Charlene was an avid gardener and had a beautiful garden to show for it. She also loved to collect antiques, especially antique glassware.

Charlene is survived by her sons, Robert (Debra) Butler, Ken (Karen) Butler and Mark Butler; six grandchildren, Geoffrey (Tracy) Butler, Dustin (Katie) Butler, Cathy (Dan) Jeffers, Tierney Butler, Lindsey Butler and Haley (Will) Wellman; and seven great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert in 2011; and her son, Paul in 2017.

The family would like to thank Premier Senior Living in Brush Prairie, WA for taking such good care of Charlene during the last two months of her life.

A Graveside Service will be held at Memory Memorial Park Cemetery, 6906 NE 144th St. on Sat., Feb. 2nd at 11:00 a.m. A Celebration of Life will be held at the home of Robert and Debra Butler after the service.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Dementia Society of America in Charlene's name.
