

Charles Barrington Porter

October 9, 1924 - October 19, 2012

CHARLES "BARRY" BARRINGTON PORTER October 9, 1924 ~ October 19, 2012 Barry was born in New Rochelle, NY, son of Col. Charles Pullman Porter and Alice Livingston Barrington. He attended Admiral Farragut Academy, and Wesleyan University and served in the Army Air Corp. He recently celebrated his 63rd wedding anniversary to the love of his life, Elizabeth "Betty" Talbot Porter. He spent most of his life in Ossining, NY where he worked as an insurance investigator. He enjoyed his family summer vacations at his folk's house on Nantucket Island where he enjoyed fishing for "blues" and walking the long beaches, searching for that next piece of driftwood to turn into a cutting board. He and Betty moved to Vancouver, WA nine years ago to be close to their daughter Pam and enjoy the NW life. Barry was a clock collector and enjoyed repairing them as well. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Ossining where he served as an Elder and also was a choir member for some 30 years. He is a member of the Columbian Presbyterian Church in Vancouver, WA. He enjoyed traveling with his wife, photography and working with wood. He volunteered at Friends of the Carpenter when he moved to Vancouver so he could combine his desire to help others with his love of carpentry. He is survived by his wife, Betty; brother, Robert Livingston Porter, Canton, CT; daughter, Pam Porter, Vancouver, WA; sons, Keith Porter, New Town, CT and Doug Porter, Lakewood, CO; and granddaughter, Robin Porter, Denver, CO. He will be interred in the new year at his family plot in Valhalla, NY. Donations in Barry's name to the Friends of the Carpenter, Vancouver, WA are appreciated.
