“ Ill always remember ray as my best friends dad. He was a quiet man with a unique sense of humor. I spent new years with him and Josh in 1987 and will never forget it. I was always sure he would catch us smoking in the space between his old green truck and the fence at his apartment off 18th. I am so very sorry for your loss Josh, he was a good man and a great father. When you come down for a visit we will take some time to celebrate his life.
