“ Sharon, my husband Jim and I were friends of Chuck in college, and we both liked him so much. Chuck was such a friendly guy, and good natured, easy going, quickly liked by all. As we have moved to different parts of the country, we lost touch, and now regret that so much. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this most difficult time. “ You were our first neighbors in our first new house as a married couple. Everyday we would come home to find Chuck outdoors with his cigar, assessing the status of his lawn. Soon it became a major motivator for Vinnie to get out there and make our lawn try to blend in with Chuck's perfect lawn. He always had a smile on his face, and I knew that he was someone we could trust. We will forever remember him this way. You both have a special place in our hearts. We hope your families will come together and support each other through this terribly difficult time.

You have such amazing strength and have been tested already - this seems like too much. But I know that you will carry on. Much love to you all, Lynn & Tim Hicks
