“ Jerry We remember the story one December several years ago when you invited the entire Car club to your home for a New Years day party. Lynn was out of the room at that time & upon her returning she was informed of plan she didn't seem to be phased by your actions & just took it in stride. We will miss her smile & sence of humor. Our thoughts & prayers are with you at this time. Don & Linda Thies

“ I first met Lynn when she was working for R.G. Pierce at Longacres. She was working in the same barn as Scott so my memories of her go back to the beginning of my life with Scott. Over the years she did some beautiful framing work for me. She was such a nice, bubbly person and our world will not be the same without her. Our condolences to you Jerry, you have been a friend for a long time and our hearts go out to you. May you find peace knowing that Lynn rests with angels now. Scott & Molly Walgren
