“ Chloe didn't really like photos, especially after some socially anxious teen years, but I'm glad she didn't hide from every single one so that we have photo memories of her still even when she has passed on.

I still so sad that she is gone and she didn't get a chance to grow old here on earth. Both happy and sad memories make me sad. They make me wish I could go back in time and change something to fix it all. Unfortunately, time travel is not possible, and I'm sure that she is resting well in heaven and might not appreciate my meddling now. I miss her so much.
