

Christopher Kyle Kelley

April 8, 1960 - July 24, 2023

Christopher Kyle Kelley, 63, passed away July 24th.

Chris was born in Seattle, Washington to Milton and Sarah Kelley. Chris graduated from Evergreen High School.

In High School he enjoyed Wrestling, Golf, FFA, as well as many other activities and good friends. He went on to attend and graduate from Central Washington University with degrees in both Chemistry and Biology. Upon graduation, Chris started working for the family business MCK Tool and Supply which was started in 1972 by his father Milton Kelley. Chris had quick success as an outside salesman and enjoyed the interaction with his customers.

At an early age, Chris learned the sport of Golf. This would stay with him throughout his life. In 1992, Chris married Debbie Ruzic, the love of his life. They shared 29 years together. They enjoyed traveling, going to the beach, family, and nesting at their house on Edgewater Drive. Chris is preceded in death by his parents Milton and Sarah Kelley, and his loving wife Debbie Ruzic. Chris is survived by his brother Stuart Kelley and wife Lisa, as well as nieces Megan and Sarah. Chris had many other cousins, nieces, and nephews.
