“ Just sitting here thinking about when we got Admiral. In the truck looking out window with ice cream on his nose. It was so funny because you got a drumstick at store and as soon as you got into truck first thing was stick his nose on it. Looked over and just had to laugh.

“ To my best friend and love...Know that I miss you every day. I look at your picture and tell you about my day. I wish you were still here to keep me on track and motivated. I'm getting there eventually. It's hard to have an empty house when being so used to having you home. Love you See you on the other side
