“ He was simply known as "Andy" at the Mount; a great athlete in high school and well liked by the entire student body. Andy always acknowledged every person in school and despite his high profile status as a high school athletic superstar; he always maintained to stay grounded and focused on his beliefs, friends, and family. He never felt he was too high above anyone not to acknowledge them or share a moment with them. It was great to see Andy develop into the fine human being we all saw in him back in high school at that young age. Andy was a special person; it was an pleasure to know him and honor to be his friend.. OHANA and love bruddah - Rob Dupaya To Andy's family: my thoughts, prayers, and strength to you all. May you continue to carry the Aloha Spirit for Andy. GOD Bless you all.

“ My Sweet Aunty Sarah, Uncle Jack and especially to Marnie, Andrea, Ryan and Marissa: Know that Andy meant alot to everyone he has touched. We are so sorry for your loss. Share your stories and memories of how he lived his very happy life. I, personally, envy that he is in a better place, listening to my Mommy play the piano while Aunty Mary Faye sings and my Daddy cooking Andy's favorite Filipino food, all the while hearing Papa say , "No, not like dat!", with Mama sitting there just smiling. And how fun that he can now get to know Cousin Steve and Laura Lei, and play ball with Val. We all laughed and cried with each other; let's not forget that he loved us too. Malama Pono, My Dear Cousin! A Hui Hou!! I love you Andrew....Cousin Pudgy

“ To Marnie and children, Aunty, Uncle and Family, We share your sorrow and pray the wonderful memories you all have will sustain you during this time of sadness. A rainbow symbolizes many things, but there is one recently told to me about a Hawaiian saying that the heavens cry when a loved one is lost. The tears create a brilliant rainbow and the arch is the pathway the soul takes to travel to heaven. There you will find Andy, with that great big smile of his, beaming down at all of you. Me ke aloha menemene, Ray, Priscilla and Matthew

“ Andrew was like an uncle to Ryan (RC), my son, a friend to the family and the most gentle, loving husband and father we've ever known. We will miss Andrew very, very much, but we take joy in knowing we will still get to see a glimpse of him in each one of the kids. Our prayers are with you, Marnie, Andrea, Ryan and Marissa We love you. Hope, Whitney, Austin and Ryan (RC)
