

Clifford Francis Borg

January 12, 1918 - November 18, 2009

Clifford F. Borg, 91, a resident of Vancouver, WA since 1946, passed away on Nov. 18, 2009. He was born on a farm in central Kansas (Windom) near Hutchinson. Clifford worked at Consolidated Aircraft in San Diego, CA during WW II and on the B-24 Liberator. Survivors include his brothers, Martin Borg of Dayton, NV and Keith Borg of Yacolt, WA. He was preceded in death by his parents, Swen and Anna Henrietta (Peterson) Borg; brothers, Melvin, Le Roy, Paul; and sister, La Mae.

Tribute Wall

MB

“ Katie, Erik and Myself wish condolences on the passing of Uncle Clifford. Cliff could always make us laugh. Mike Borg

Mike Borg - November 22, 2009 at 12:00 AM

RP

“ We were sorry to hear of Clifford's passing. We will miss his notes at Christmas time. I remember his wry smile and the fact that he often joked with us. Thank you to Helen and Keith for taking such good care of him.

Rick and Carol Peterson - November 21, 2009 at 12:00 AM

GB

“ Uncle Cliff was always a joy and had a special sense of humor which will be missed. He lived a full life and has earned his rest. Uncle Keith and Helen should be blessed for all they have done for Cliff. I can't thank them enough.

Gregory and Lisa Borg - November 20, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ Cliff was a favorite uncle. The dry Borg humor seems to have collected in him. He was loved by many and will be much missed.

Merle Borg - November 19, 2009 at 12:00 AM