Connie Souders was a much-loved wife, mother, mother-in-law, daughter, sister, aunt and friend. She had a huge heart and enjoyed entertaining family for holidays, birthdays, and celebrations. Her joy was giving to others, whether it was farm fresh eggs, vegetable starts, or friendly advice. She was known for her amazing flowers and garden that she shared with many. Connie was born January 31, 1963 and spent most of her life in Vancouver. She graduated from Evergreen High School in 1981. Connie married her childhood sweetheart Bill in 1984 and together they raised two children, Blake and Aleana. Connie's greatest joy was taking care of her family and tending to her yard and garden and being involved in the lives of her many family and friends. Connie courageously battled cancer for two years before her life ended much too soon on July 12, 2013. She was a source of comfort to others who were diagnosed with cancer and were receiving treatment. She died at home surrounded by her loving family. She will be greatly missed by many. Family meant the world to Connie. She is survived by her husband Bill of 28 years, son Blake, daughter Aleana, son-in-law Cory, father Danny, step-mother Sandi, sisters Jennifer, Jodi, Cyndi, Kim and many nieces and nephews.
