“ I'm still in shock.... I wish this was just a dream, I'm in so much disbelief I hate this, the world feels so quiet and empty without you here grandma but I know you're out of pain and breathing as light as a feather able to move freely and run as fast as you can, I love you more than anything in this world, you've taught me mostly everything I know, you took me and my brother in when we were babies and You've been my momma ever since, I love every single memory with you from the beach trips every summer, to the camping trips, to you coming to the rescue anytime I need it, our phone calls every night talking about nothing just so I could feel like we were together (covid sucks) I love you so much, I'm so honored that my son AnJuan knows who his great grandma Cindy is also that's such an amazing blessing, you're our number 1 angel now and I know you will forever make sure we are ok down here.... even though I hate it so much you're not here physically and it hurts so so bad I know that you're here mentally and in my heart forever.. it's not good enough but it will have to do I guess.. I love you beautiful grandma, so much and I will make sure grandpa is ok and I'll make sure him and dad have anything they could ever need because I know that's what you would want !!! You're my favorite human being for life and I miss you so so much. Xoxoxoxo you're grand daughter/ daughter

“ I Remember meeting you when I was 13/14 years old from day 1 you always had my back even though I was a bratty teen. Through the years you were like a second mother to me no matter what you always loved me unconditionally. And when I had my kids you were the most loving amazing grandma to all 4 of my children. Cindy I am going to miss you so much I already do but I know you are in heaven watching over all of us just the way you did when you were here with us. You will never ever be forgotten and you will always be loved and missed. I can not wait until the day we meet again. I love you so much may you forever Rest In Peace ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ 😊 I remember growing up as the oldest Son our mother always fought for us and always took the best care of us boys and loved us unconditionally and made sure all of our needs were met and always there for us. Mom you are going to be missed by so many! I am so proud of you for keeping the faith and love alive always believing with out a doubt in your heart all the way home! We know and many other's know you are in heaven with your beautiful Mama like you always wanted to be. I love you forever and miss you big. God couldn't have given me a better mother than you! Love you and I long for that day to come when we can see each other face to face again. Love you with all my heart sincerely your first Son Bryan. 😇
