

Dale Ralph Barnhart

September 10, 1939 - June 1, 2020

Dale Ralph Barnhart of Vancouver, WA, passed away peacefully on June 1, 2020 surrounded by his family. He was born in Mason City, WA and graduated from Wenatchee High School in 1957.

After retiring from truck driving and freight, his real passion was bowling. He bowled on several leagues throughout the years and always practiced at least twice a week.

Dale will always be remembered for his quick wit and playful banter he shared with family and friends alike. He was very devoted to his family and treasured each and every moment he spent with them.

Dale is survived by his wife, Diane, of 52 years; his daughter, Darci (Peter); and son, Devin (Davina); grandchildren, Evan and Jillian, (Kira); and his two brothers, Larry and Wayne; along with several nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of Life to be decided on and held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

EV

“ Grandpa used to take me and my sister to go bowling like once a week and we'd get our own lane and everything. I remember me n my sister used to ask if we could go to Christine's afterwards . He let me and my sister sit up at the lil counter and I remember those times being the highlight of my summer , miss you grandpa <3

evan - October 04, 2021 at 12:00 AM