

Dale Leland Bott

September 18, 1931 - October 30, 2010

Dale L. Bott, beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend, died Oct. 30, 2010 at the Ray Hickey Hospice House in Vancouver, WA, after being diagnosed with acute leukemia. He was born Sept. 18. 1931 in Wenatchee, WA to Claude and Eliza Bott. He lived in Bellingham, WA and moved to Vancouver in 1942. Dale married Lois Powell in 1949 and together they raised three sons. They later divorced. He worked as a longshoreman for ILWU Local #8 in Portland, OR for 34 years, retiring in 1993. In 1992 he married Marva Wirkkala. Dale lived his life to the fullest. He enjoyed traveling to Arizona for many years and working in his beautiful back yard. Contributions may be made to the Ray Hickey Hospice House in Vancouver and Naselle Peaceful Hill Cemetery. He was a good friend to many of his neighbors. Dale is survived by his wife, Marva; three sons, Allan D. (Ji) Bott of Thailand, Rex L. (Alicia) Bott of Kelso, WA, and Greg J. (Angie) Bott of Hood River, OR; step-sons, Keith (Dianne) Wirkkala and Eric Wirkkala, both of Naselle, WA; eleven grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; sister, Joan Steifel Brandel; brother, Forrest Bott; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by brothers, CA "Tony" and Alvin Bott; and sister, Edytha (Bott) Stockton.
