

Dale Arthur Langley

August 6, 1936 - September 12, 2018

Dale Arthur Langley, age 82, passed away in the comfort of his home on Sept. 12, 2018. He was born on Aug. 6th, 1936 in Spokane, WA to Lt. Col. Claire and Marjorie (Muehlman) Langley. Dale graduated from Heidelberg American High School in Germany. Dale received a Bachelors of Arts in Education at University of Puget Sound, and a Masters of Arts in Education from University of Oregon. For 26 years, he coached and taught Health and P.E. at Binnsmead Middle School in Portland, OR. Dale loved his family, teaching, watching and participating in sports, the Winterhawks, snowmobiling, working hard, being a craftsman and general contractor (Langley Construction) and retirement.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Claire and Marjorie Langley; brother, Claire Langley; and nephew, TJ Langley.

Dale leaves behind his wife of 46 years, Cathlene (Gratzer) Langley and a crowd of loved ones; brother, Terry Langley; son, Sean Langley; daughters, Lori Souders, Kara Monahan and Erin Tegeler; 12 grandchildren; 3 nephews; 1 niece; and 2 sisters-in-law. We remember and give thanks that now his mind is clear and sharp and his body made new.

A Memorial will be held on Oct. 20, 2018, at 11a.m. at Liberty Bible Church, 12401 NE Salmon Creek Ave., Vancouver, WA.
