

Dan Greg Tsugawa

August 28, 1957 - September 2, 2013

"Dan was an amazing friend, brother, son, and member of the Woodland community." Dan Greg Tsugawa, 56, of Woodland, WA, peacefully passed away at his home on Sept. 2, 2013. He was born in Portland, OR on Aug. 28, 1957; son of George and Mable Tsugawa. Dan was raised on his family's farm, learning an amazing work ethic from an early age, being one of six hard working children. He had a busy childhood and was a 1976 class graduate from Woodland High School. Later, Dan would grow to manage the Tsugawa Farms with his father George. Dan was an extremely intelligent and passionate man who was determined to succeed in life. Growing up, Dan enjoyed racing his motorcycle on flat track, and power lifting. Many of Dan's lifelong friends could describe him as person who knew how to have a good time. He had a passion for cooking, spending good times with friends, and most importantly his family. Dan was a devoted father. His children were his pride and joy, and he loved spending quality family time together. He taught his children work ethic, responsibility, and to never give up, at a very young age ensuring that his children would become successful adults. Dan is survived by his father, George; siblings, Karen Tsugawa, Mary Lynn Archer, Lori Whaley and Brian Tsugawa; and his children, Lynnell (25) Tsugawa-Murray (Ken), Tia (19) and Timothy (21) Tsugawa. A memorial service in Dan's honor will be held at the First Church of God, 3300 NE 78th St., Vancouver, WA, on Sat., Sept. 14, 2013 at 11:00 a.m.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 09:06 PM