

Daniel Patrick Monaghan

July 11, 1947 - December 3, 2009

DANIEL PATRICK MONAGHAN July 11, 1947 ~ Dec. 3, 2009 Daniel Patrick Monaghan, 62, fought a valiant battle and died "too soon" (in his own words) on Dec. 3, 2009 at Southwest Washington Medical Center where he was surrounded by his loving family. He was born in Vancouver, WA on July 11, 1947. He attended Fort Vancouver High School where he enjoyed running cross country and spending time with valued friends. Daniel was drafted into the Army in 1967 and served in Vietnam (1968-1969), receiving various medals including the Purple Heart. Daniel struggled for years with his personal relationship with Bill W. He was a sponsor to many who will never forget his love and support. He now resides in peace with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Daniel was lovingly called "Danny Boy" by those who loved him most. Remember him with his favorite prayer, God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change. Courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference. Daniels father, mother, brothers, Joseph, Michael, John "Jack", and his oldest sister, Diana preceded him in death, leaving Isabel "Cookie" M. Quirk (David) as his only living sibling. Daniel had a very special cousin, Pamela Stravinsky; ten nieces and nephews; and numerous cousins who hold a special place in his heart. A memorial service will be held on Fri., Dec. 11, 2009 at 12:30 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens.

“ Danny and I share the same birth day (belly Button) with the exception of being exactly 10 years apart mine being 07/11/1957. I have many memories of Dan, we went to probaly 100s of AA/NA together. One time I remember was when i road my Motorcycle to CA. and he and I went to a Rod Stewart concert together at the concord stadium. Can you believe, a ROD STEWART concert! I said a prayer first thing this AM and hope your pain is small. Robert (Rob) Landahl
