Grandma loved doing all sorts of things from crocheting, golfing, canning, pickling, making homemade fudge and peanut brittle, that was the best, and delighted in listening to country music. She loved her family, neighbors, and animals. And to round it all out, grandma enjoyed being outdoors for gardening and getting out on the water for some boating.

Grandma, you are missed yet we are at peace knowing you have gone on to a higher calling and are no longer in any pain.
