David Harold Regan April 20, 1951 ~ March 19, 2025 In Loving Memory

David Harold Regan, fondly known as "Coach Dave" by many, passed away peacefully on March 19, 2025. Born on April 20, 1951, in Vancouver, WA, to Harold L. Regan and Evelyn G. Regan, David was a beloved son, father, brother, and community figure who touched countless lives with his humor, authenticity, and warmth.

Raised in Vancouver, WA, David proudly earned the rank of Eagle Scout and graduated from Fort Vancouver High School, where he excelled both academically and athletically. As a fullback on the football team and an all-star baseball player, Dave's athletic abilities were widely recognized. He played baseball for Fort Vancouver and several minor league teams, and he was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds. Unfortunately, due to an injury during spring training, he was unable to continue his career in professional baseball.

He continued his education at Portland State University, where he received his Bachelor of Science in Accounting. After graduating, David married and devoted his life to raising his five children, Elizabeth, Robert, David Jr., Breann, Stephany, two bonus sons, Brandon and Nick Karsner. He championed his children, coaching them the best he could in their sports, businesses, and spirituality. His unwavering love and guidance shaped their lives and left an enduring legacy.

David shared an especially close bond with his loyal brother, Ron. He loved Ron dearly and would have done anything to have just one more adventure with him.

David was involved in several businesses over the course of his career, including owning and operating a statewide bail bond company for 20 years. He was deeply engaged in bail bond advocacy and was instrumental in driving changes to laws that positively impacted the industry. His efforts were not only recognized but valued by colleagues and communities alike. David also mentored others entering the bail bond field and coached small business owners, demonstrating his commitment to supporting and empowering others. An avid outdoors man, David found joy in hunting, fishing, and spending time at the beach. He had a love for sports, coaching baseball at Alcoa Little League, where he earned the nickname "Coach Dave." He was admired by young athletes and parents alike for his dedication to the game and his ability to inspire those he coached.

David adored his grandchildren and cherished every moment he could spend with them. He leaves behind his beloved grandchildren: Isaiah Regan, Ryan Regan, Remington Regan, Sonder Regan, Weston Regan, Sophia Smith-Regan, and Sabriel Smith-Regan.

In his free time, David enjoyed making his signature spaghetti dish, working in his yard, and reading. Known for his humor and genuine personality, David could light up a room with his jokes and laughter. He was a true clown who loved to make people laugh and had a natural ability to bring joy to those around him. His authenticity and dedication to building real connections made him beloved by many.

David cared deeply for causes that championed animal and human rights, reflecting his compassion and commitment to making the world a better place. In his final days, he committed his life to serving the Lord. A devoted member of his Foursquare Church, David's faith was an important part of his life and brought him comfort and strength. He has now found peace in heaven.

David will be deeply missed by his children, Elizabeth (Roger), Robert, David Jr. (Charlotte), Breann, and Stephany; his bonus sons, Branden and Nick Karsner; his beloved brother, Ron; and his grandchildren, Isaiah, Ryan, Remington, Sonder, Sophia, Sabriel, and Weston. He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and countless cherished memories that will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew him.

A celebration of David's life will be held at Reign Church 11608 NE 107th Street, Vancouver, WA 98662 on Friday, March 28, 2025 at 11:00 a.m.

Rest in peace, Coach Dave you will always be remembered with love and gratitude.
