“ Cousin Dave. I just found out of your passing not long ago. It is now April 27, 2024.

Lost track of you and family after your mom died (my aunt Irene - my moms (Mildred) sister.

I have to say you were my favorite cousin

“ I know it has taken me a month or so to actually get on here and post a memory but there are so many to choose from. I would just say that even though we started off rough, I was young, I couldn't have asked for any better role model than you. I hope I made you proud and can continue to do so. Your wisdom and love was something I could look forward too when I saw you. I will always miss our talks and your ideas for my projects to make them better. Thank you Dave for being my bonus dad!!! Love you

“ Dave was just 3 years older than me, and we had many fun times together growing up as our parents were cousins, and he just lived over the river from us. I saw Dave again a few years ago, when we had a family reunion at our house in Salem. It was so great seeing him again after all those years -- still with a great smile and laugh! My thoughts and condolences go to all the family.

“ Dave, you will be missed. That smile, your laugh, and how easy you could relax and take it all in stride. Some of the family get together at grandma Sandra's and up at yours and Laura's place. And taking it easy with the dog. Was a joy to know you.

“ David, I have such wonderful memories of you at family reunions and other get-togethers. I remember your smiling (and often mischievous!) face--you were always so much fun when "the cousins" all gathered together. Please know you will be missed, and I will keep your memory in my thoughts always.

“ A wise and caring dad. You mean the world to Benny, the kids, and I. Your candid advice was always treasured because we knew it came from your heart and you truly cared for/about us. And I'll never forget our talks on the deck or late night after everyone went to sleep, whether it be problems or just shooting the breeze. While we can no longer call or text, I can talk to you all the time now. You might be gone for now, but you will never be forgotten. We will always love and miss you <3

“ Hey! We love you Dave, your laughter, your smile. I am so thankful to have had you as my father in-law. You're the Best! You made me feel right at home from day one. Sitting in your chair talking away, asking lots of questions and always smiling. I have many fond memories of BBQs and family dinners. It was always fun to listen to all your stories, you'd get so excited telling me all your stories. Thank you for raising Jeff to be the man he is today. He's a great husband and father because you taught him how to show love, respect and be the Best! Im happy you're with Jesus.. (still kinda jealous) thankful you're at peace, I will miss you.. until we meet again! Love you. ❤️🙏

“ Dave was a positive, uplifting person. He wanted everyone to be happy because he was always happy. He was a man of great faith. An extremely loving man that will be missed.
