

David Kevin Zarzana

March 16, 1957 - November 11, 2019

David Kevin Zarzana passed away with his family by his side on Nov. 11, 2019, in Portland, OR. He was born on March 16, 1957, in Sacramento, CA, to Jerry Zarzana and Charlene Relyea.

Dave graduated from Evergreen High School in Vancouver, WA, in 1975. He also attended Western Washington University. He was employed at Music World for over 20 years and was known region-wide as the "go-to guy" for guitar repair and restringing.

Dave loved the Lord and attended numerous churches in the area, including Crossroads Community, Wellspring Foursquare and Rhapsody Church. He loved singing, playing his guitar, his family and Raider football.

He played in many local bands including The Hardtops, Blue Light, Reflections, Pacific Rhythm and Echoes of Yasgurs. Dave's fans and bandmates loved it when he would dress up as Buddy Holly and Elvis (Enis, the Other Guy!) and perform hits such as "Peggy Sue" and "All Shook Up."

He is survived by his two sisters, Jenean and Brenda; his wife, Lori; children, Brandon, Matthew, Joshua, Jacob, Miriah, Emily, Nathan and Evan; five granddaughters and 13 grandsons.

Dave was preceded in death by both parents.

A Memorial Service will be Saturday, Dec. 7, at 10 a.m., at Anthem Church in Fairview, OR. A celebration event "Davidpalooza" - will be held on Sunday, Dec. 8, from 2 to 11 p.m. at The Springs Restaurant in Vancouver.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to HHT.org.

Tribute Wall

“ My heart goes out to Lori and her entire family. I've only known Dave through Lori's eyes and it's always been quite a love story. The love they had for one another is something to be admired. I hope you find some kind of peace in all the amazing memories you've made together and hold on to those moments close to your heart. Love to all....Nicole Flack

---

Nicole - November 21, 2019 at 12:00 AM