“ Heartfelt condolences to Dean's wife and children. We were shocked and saddened by the news. Dean was truly himself at work and with others, he spoke from that genuine place. Our prayers are with you all.

“ Dean was often witty at barbques to say the least. Sometimes the life of the party. He will be missed in both the legal community as well as social circles. My thoughts go out to his family. May you rest in peace.

“ I, as well as my family are deeply saddened by the passing of Dean Langsdorf, a native son of Vancouver, Washington and close friend of my family. After perusing the kind words of the people Dean touched during his time with us. There is little I can add to the person I had the honor to call friend. The time we spent together over the past 20 plus years will be coveted for the rest of the time I have left on this earth. Dean’s love for international football, family, friends and gourmet cooking always led to spirited discussion and banter. Dean’s passing has left a void that only he could fill, however, our last conversation during the first week of last month will serve as a reminder to me that life can be very short. The commits left by clients, colleagues and friends truly capture the layers of his dynamic personality, intellect and his ability to always do “what is right” for the good of all. He will be deeply missed, Our condolences to the Langsdorf family for your loss. The Smiths of SLO

“ Dean was a kind, witty, and caring person. He was one of the first attorneys I met in the area. He was opposing counsel and was incredibly welcoming and warm. His smile and chuckle will be greatly missed. My thoughts and deepest sympathies go out to his family.

“ I was stunned to learn of Deans passing. Its hard to find fitting words to express my sadness and condolences to his family and all who knew him. Dean was highly recommended to me by one of his peers to help with my divorce. Within a few minutes of meeting him I knew he deserved the recommendation. Like the thoughts of others expressed here, I came to know that Dean truly cared about his clients. With his obvious skill, his support, and encouragement, he helped me through a very dark time in my life. He made a positive and important difference. Along the way Dean became a trusted friend. He continued his interest in my well-being to the end of his life. I will miss him always.

“ Terribly sad to learn about Mr. Langsdorf's passing. Our family met him through mutual friends, and relied on him as an attorney. His efforts forever made our family better. Through his kindness and professionalism he helped my father attain custody of me, and someone we've talked about with the greatest fondness and respect. In part, it was Dean that inspired me to become an attorney. His character, kindness, and commitment to human dignity was a model for others and I hope to emulate that in my own career. I wish his friends and family my condolences. Your loss is one that is shared by Clark County. Dean made this a better place to practice and a more enjoyable place to live.

“ I was blessed to have a few cases with Dean over the years in Clark County. They were difficult, high conflict cases. Dean handled himself with the utmost integrity and professionalism. We battled it out in court a few times - sometimes he would win, sometimes I would win. But I always learned something from him. He was a true gentleman with a wonderful sense of humor. A class act. He will be missed by the Clark County Family Bar. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ I am so very sad to hear of Dean's passing. Dean not only did an excellent job of representing me over the past 2 years, but he also became a very good friend. Dean's thoughtfulness and caring nature was a blessing during the stressful times I went through. My condolences to Dean's wonderful staff and of course his family. He will be missed.

“ Dean was one of the first attorneys I met when I opened my practice here. He was the definition of a gentleman. He always had a smile and never appeared stressed out. He gave graciously of his time to answer my questions if I called his office. This is a terrible loss for the local family law bar. My condolences to his family and his office. He will be missed.

“ Dean was not only an outstanding attorney, he was charming, funny, smart, and never pretentious. It was always a pleasure to have him on the other side of a case because his word was his bond. He will be sorely missed in the Family Law Section of the Clark County Bar Association. My law partner and spouse, Eugene Graff, and I send our deepest condolences to Dean's family. It is a huge loss.

“ We always enjoyed the conversations we had on the side line of many of Loftin and Daniels soccer games. They were sometimes more entertaining than the game and always animated and very funny. Lofton, Zoe and Foster clearly inherited his soccer prowess and our hearts go out to them at this difficult time. The Cebula's send our deepest sympathies to Laura and the Langsdorf family, you will be in our prayers.
