“ I've known you since high school. We've shared many good days and not so good days. The best day was when we realized we needed to quit living our wives the way we wanted and found Jesus Christ has our savior, hallelujah! I said I always pray for your kids and family and I know from all you said your biggest concern were your kids. She wants you to have the peace that she shared with Jesus Christ in her life. I hope and pray as sad it is to see her gone that many will want what Deanna had in her life was a relationship with our savior. She would love to see you in heaven.
God bless you all.
