

Deborah J. Talbot

September 18, 1951 - June 11, 2022

Deborah "Debbie" Jean Talbot was born in 1951 in Sanger, California to Clifford Gray and Barbara Ward. She passed away in the company of her loved ones in her home after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer on June 11th, 2022. Debbie lived in the Vancouver area most of her life and is survived by her loving husband of fifty-two years, Thomas Talbot. She is also survived by her son, Joseph Talbot, her brother, Steven Gray, two grandchildren, Kylie Langel and Cole Talbot, and four great grandchildren.

Debbie was a very creative person who enjoyed crafting beautiful projects. She was also an accomplished painter who painted on canvas as well as customizing wooden furniture. Animals were a huge love in her life, and she adored spending time with her little dog Jazzy who never left her side. Holidays made Debbie so happy, especially Christmas. She would always put together elaborate and thoughtful celebrations that her family will treasure forever.

Debbie spent her life as a devoted and loving wife, mother, and grandmother. She was overjoyed to be a central figure in her family's life and went above and beyond to make sure that she instilled strong values in them, that they were well cared for, and knew they were loved. She kept everything running smoothly and will be greatly missed. Debbie loved her family with her whole heart and will live on in their hearts and minds for the rest of their lives.

Tribute Wall

AT

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Evergreen Memorial Gardens Cemetery, Funeral Chapel and Crematory

---

A Memorial Tree was planted for Deborah J. Talbot - June 14, 2022 at 12:00 AM