

Deena Morgan

November 26, 1948 - December 1, 2021

Deena Bollscheweiler Morgan passed away on Dec. 1st, 2021 surrounded by her family. She was born Nov. 26th, 1948 in Evanston Wyoming to her parents, Wayne and Vera Bollscheweiler who preceded her in death. Upon graduating from high school she attended Brigham Young University where she met her husband and eternal companion of 51 years, Dennis D. Morgan. They were sealed for time and all eternity on Sept. 11, 1970 in the Manti, Utah Temple. Together they would live not only in Provo, Utah but also Davenport Iowa, Eugene Oregon and eventually settle in Vancouver Washington.

Deena was a woman of many talents. As a youth she twirled baton and in college she and Dennis danced on the BYU Ballroom Dance Team. She was an expert seamstress and award winning quilter, a hobby she would continue throughout her life and which would bless the lives of many. She loved to read, loved serving in her church and had a strong love for the gospel of Jesus Christ. Deena was someone that others looked to for advice and support and she was a wonderful friend, wife, mother and grandmother.

Deena is survived by her husband, Dennis D Morgan, her sister, Lorna (Bob) Loosely, as well as her four children: Kristyn (David) Morgan, Nathan (Amy) Morgan, Melinda (Garan) Hunter, and Lisa (Jake) Wise. Included in her posterity are 20 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

We invite all to honor and celebrate her life at her service which will be held on Thursday, Dec.9th, 2021.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (West Stake Center): 9729 NE 50th Ave, Vancouver, WA 98665.

“ Denny (and family), My deepest condolences for your loss, and your sorrow. She was so lucky to have someone so madly in love with her all these years. What a great example to all your posterity. May Heavenly Father pour out an abundance of comfort and peace in the coming days and years ahead. Love, Paula Nelson
