

Delbert Earl Crider

June 4, 1913 - August 3, 2010

Delbert E. Crider (also known as Del or Earl) born 06-04-13 in Crider Missouri was preceded in death by his 6 siblings, Daughter, Sylvia, and Son, Ronald E. Crider. Survived by his wife, Doris J. (Fagalde), granddaughter Tami Haney, 2 great-granddaughters, Stephanie Rush & Melissa Barry, and 3 great-great-grandchildren, Monica, Cassidy, & Dylan Rush. Delbert was a WWII Veteran, serving in the Navy on the USS Steamer Bay as a helmsman. This was a very memorable & impressionable part of his life & he was willing to share the details with family & friends. He later had several odd jobs then for the remainder of his working career, he was a school bus driver/trainer. He was awarded a certificate by the State of California for having driven 1 million miles during his career. After retirement, he & his wife moved north to Gerber, CA then to Vancouver, WA to be near their family. He was a kind hearted, gentle man who believed family was everything. Since breaking his pelvis and hip, Delbert had spent the last 3 years in an adult foster care home where, at the age of 97, he eventually succumbed to the forces of nature on August 3, 2010 at 1:30pm. He is now at peace and with his predeceased loved ones. There will be a service on Monday August 9th at 12:30 pm at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Visitation will be on Sunday. The pallbearers for the service will be: Bill Haney, Mark Barry, Thomas Rush, & Eddie Magda.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 03:35 PM

“ I am SO sorry to have learned of Delbert's passing. I hope you are doing well. I know you will love and miss him always because what I knew of him he will be someone worth remembering (as is his son who is forever in my heart). Please accept my heartfelt condolences and I would love to try and get ahold of you soon. All My Love
Brandy

Brandy Ousley - November 23, 2014 at 12:00 AM