“ I met Delbert in 2007 when I sold him a Medicare insurance policy. He was a kind and very thoughtful man. Even after I quit selling insurance, Delbert kept in contact with me, calling to wish me a nice Easter of other holiday. Delbert was my go-to person when I had a load of cardboard he could sell. I will miss his upbeat attitude and sweet personality. God speed, Delbert! Barbara Fitzpatrick

“ I met Delbert at The Salvation Army Church. 7 years ago. He was always kind and considerate to others. Delbert always had a smile and friendly hug to share. I will greatly miss the gentile man. Major Susan Nute

“ I looked forward to Delbert coming in to the electric company office every month. He shared his cardboard collection stories and kept me up to date on how life was going. He will be greatly missed. Susan P.
