October 2, 1953 - February 19, 2021

Dennis Jesse Shelley of Chehalis, Washington left his earthly body on February 19, 2021. Dennis was born on October 2, 1953 in Whitefish, Montana to Jesse and Marion (Berntson) Shelley. The two married on February 12, 1972 and settled down to raise their family in Libby, then Troy, MT.

Dennis made a career of welding and was well known for his artistry as well as his ability to repair the unrepairable. Dennis enjoyed playing guitar, softball, and hunting in his free time, and even as illness took over, he continued to play guitar with friends, family, and bandmates.

His parents Jesse and Marion, his sisters Lorraine, Mavis (Potter), Grace (Bock), and Rose (Countryman) and his brother, Wayne, as well as many other relatives precede Dennis in death.

Dennis is survived by his wife, Cindy, as well as his children Jenifer (Dan) McLuskie, Sam, Kyle (Heidi), and Kaylee (Travis) Remer. He is also survived by his grandchildren, Alyx McLuskie, Hunter (Luis) Acosta, Madison Remer and Logan Remer. Additionally, he is survived by many nieces and nephews, brothers and sisters in law, and cousins as well as friends he cared for like family.

A service will be held on Friday, February 26, 2021 3:00 pm at The Adna Grange, 132 Dieckman Road, Chehalis, WA, 98532.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to your local school district music programs, as we know that Dennis' love for music started as a child and he would want to see other children have music in their lives.

“ I could have listened to him play music all day! He always had a smile! I remember I saw him on my mail route one time- he didn't know it was me -he stopped to ask for help finding an address, we were both surprised to see each other :) kindness is what I'll always remember the most and how talented he was. Deepest sympathy to you all! Praying that God gives you peace and comfort. - virtual hugs!-
