

Desmond Dale Dean

October 11, 1935 - January 30, 2021

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

PH

“ wish i could have attended the service and be with the family as they morn the passing of their farther.one of my memories was being a pit crew mech. on Johns motorcycle when he raced on the old lewiston hill, Desmond has the leader of the pack. the head mech. fix all wield all. Desmond held the members of the 7th street gang in check, keeping a keen eye on all of us as we proweled up and down neighborhood.Desmond was a strick father with a soft side.I remeber when he worked on the dams and drove the crew wagon back and forth to the job sites, beverages included for the long trips. his voice was rough but his heart was soft. i'll never forget him, he will always be in my memories. a good family friend. Pat Haskell or griz as i was known as pat haskell - February 06, 2021 at 12:00 AM

JS

“ For some reason, I always felt a little intimidated by Desmond growing up. Not sure why because he's just the sweetest man. I remember seeing the boys stop on aluminum cans, but not before putting that rock inside. Sneaky man Desmond was, but what a kind heart. My love and prayers go out to Jeri, John, Desiree, Lisa, Tim, and Dale and their families. He will most certainly be missed by all who knew and loved him. Until we meet again someday. With much love, Janet Schoonover ❤️

Janet Schoonover Smith - February 04, 2021 at 12:00 AM

SS

“ to all family members, it was a great honor to know Desmond while we all grew up as the gang on the corner he will be missed by the ones left in Lewiston id. many fond memories will be held in my heart from my childhood only to be taken when i leave. my prayers go out to the family in this time. he was a tough old sonna bitch that kept us kids in order. i remember him as a great mechanic that could fix anything brought to him. also the times he got into mining for gold in the creeks of Idaho with his dredge. family friend for life. Steve Schoonover or Schoonie as my friends always called me

Steve Schoonover - February 03, 2021 at 12:00 AM