DIANA (TINA) MARIE THOMPSON November 14, 1943 ~ August 9, 2023

Diana (Tina) Marie Thompson, 79, of Vancouver, WA, passed away on Aug. 9, 2023. Tina was born on Nov. 14, 1943, to Bessie and Joseph Rancore.

Tina was a beloved wife of 60 years to Jerry Thompson and a loving mother to her sons, Jeff (wife, Pamela) and Tad (wife, Erin) Thompson. Tina is also survived by four grandchildren, Conor Rogers, Allie Thompson, Mesa Thompson, and Mira Thompson; her sisters, Jo Rancore and Jeannie Tripp; her brother, Rob Rancore; as well as several nieces and nephews; dozens of amazing friends; and her beloved dog, Teddi.

Tina proudly supported her family in all possible ways. She camped out and provided the boys with meals as they fished and hunted. She stood out as an avid fan at all the athletic events of her children. And she continued that tradition for her grandchildren.

Tina always had a cheerful disposition and she brought joy to those around her with her warm smile and infectious giggles. She was known to thoroughly enjoy playing cards with her sisters and friends, and her laughter could be heard throughout the house during those games.

Tina was a fantastic cook, as evident during her career, as she prepared and served meals to students and staff in the Vancouver School District for many years. Her cinnamon rolls were famous and enjoyed by many. Later, she moved into the district office as the lead to the Food Services Department, continuing to make a positive impact in the community.

A celebration of life for Tina will be held at noon on Tuesday, Oct. 17, at the Battle Ground Community Center, 912 East Main St.

Tina Thompson will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all who knew her. Her laughter and cheerful spirit will be remembered fondly.
