

Diane S. Rowland

March 4, 1950 - August 13, 2024

Diane Sue Rowland has gone to be with her beloved husband, Daniel, and her mother, Joan. Diane was born in Portland, OR on March 4, 1950 and passed away in Vancouver, WA on August 13, 2024. She had lived in various locations in and around the Pacific Northwest her entire life. She worked in the medical field most of her adult life from Charge Unit Secretary to medical billing and everything in between. Diane's greatest adventures were in car racing with CSCC and ICSCC. She was a past officer, worked events and took her little sister to all sorts of racing events. During Diane and Daniel's later years in racing, they would include their niece and nephew as well. Diane had a love of cats that was unmeasureable, and really any soul with fur. Her last fur baby was Lily, who has gone to live with her niece. Diane is survived by her father David E. Kuchler, brother David L. Kuchler (Caryl), sister Donna Gibson (Rick), her nieces, Meghan Evans and Crystal Gibson, and her nephew Lee Gibson (Carly). She was predeceased by her husband, Daniel Rowland, and her mother, Joan Kuchler. Diane was greatly loved and will never be forgotten. Until we meet again sis.

“ I've known Diane since our years at Parkrose! We shared a love for the International Order of Jobs Daughters attending each others many philanthropic events. We also shared a love of sports car racing.

Even when long periods of time passed between visits, when we did meet up it was as if there had been no years in between.

Love you dear friend! Enjoy reconnecting with your loved ones! 💖
