

Donna J Shearer

May 5, 1933 - July 26, 2022

Donna Jean Shearer was born May 5, 1933, in Tacoma, Washington, to Frank Londona Oliver, Sr. and Nancy Mary Malott. She passed away in Vancouver, Washington on July 26, 2022, at the age of 89.

Donna Jean grew up loving flowers and music. As a child, she was also enthralled by the beauty and grace of horses. She begged her grandparents to allow her to take horse riding lessons. It was during her teen years that she and her future husband, Dwayne, bonded while horseback riding. They spent long hours on the trail. They also enjoyed canoeing on the lakes of the Olympic Peninsula. Their love story continued for over 50 years! When Donna was young, her grandparents paid for her to take piano lessons. She became an accomplished pianist. Those who knew Donna would say that she was a dreamer. She often talked of family history, proclaiming proudly that her French ancestors had financed the American Revolutionary War. She would talk of castles in France and England. She also enjoyed long hours on the beach basking in the sunshine. Donna made sure to teach her children about the love of Jesus. She said that she wanted everyone to be in Heaven. She longed for Heaven when all evil would be gone, and the faces there would shine with the precious love of Jesus. Her children long for that day, as well. Until then, they will remember the special times they had with their mother, Donna Jean.

Donna Jean was preceded in death by her husband, Dwayne Allen Shearer, and her youngest daughter, Junelle Judith Johnson. She is survived by her son, David Wayne Shearer, and daughter-in-law, Lynn, her daughter, Marilyn Jeanine Meyer, and her husband, Grant, and Donna's sister, Eva Marie Ferris. Also surviving are her grandchildren, Joel D. Shearer, Abram M. Shearer, Micah S. Shearer, Shane Oliver Shearer, Danielle N. Von Ruden, Anna M. Johnson, and, Alexandra Johnson. She is also survived by eight wonderful great-grandchildren.

“ I am thankful that Donna and Dwayne raised the most thoughtful and kind man that I have ever met, David. My husband for over 43 years, he is a picture of Jesus to me. Thank you, Donna, for the gift of David!
