“ Growing up my brother and I had the luxury of having Grandma right around the corner from us. I remember my dad making up go over to grandmas house almost everyday while the garden was up in bloom and we would have to pick whatever veggies were in the garden. Grandma especially liked the cherry tomatoes. One of the best memories I have is having homemade popcorn with Anthony Bubba and grandma and having movie nights in the living room as kids.

“ When I was 5 or 6 yrs old I went to live with my Grandma Donna. I feel so lucky to have been raised and loved by her. She was so patient, kind, understanding, and encouraging. She was the very best Grandma a girl could have.

We would go for walks in the neighborhood and I would fall down, as I was born with very mild cerebral palsy. She would help me get right back up and we would start walking again. She would teach me the names of all the flowers and styles of houses. In the summertime we would go to Garibaldi at the Oregon coast. We would go for walks to the bakery to get a treat, see the old train, see the big "G" through the trees on the mountainside, and then walk to the dock to see if Grandpa's boat was coming in.

From tea parties with Great Grandma Minnie to watching Wheel of Fortune, we always had a great time.

She helped me with my homework, proofread my assignments, taught me how to write in cursive, and how to speak and write "correct English" as she said.

Grandma took care of me when I was sick, feeling down, or just needed someone to talk to. She never missed a key moment or a special occasion.

Grandma was always there for me, no matter what, whether she agreed with the decisions I made in my adult life.

She was the sweetest great grandmother and at times seemed to love my children more than she loved me (if that was possible).

Grandma Donna left love and memories in every heart she touched regardless of what race, background, or phase of life they were in. She always offered a kind word or gesture.

Grandma Donna will definitely be missed by many as she dances to Conway Twitty and has tea parties with the angels! Although it broke my heart to pieces, I feel extremely blessed to have been able to be by her side as she took her last breath.

I will love you forever and ever and ever Grandma Donna!!

I met Grandma Donna in 1994 when I had the privilege of becoming Shannon's "Big Sister." Grandma Donna welcomed me into her home and invited me to call her Grandma. She was always a phone call away when I needed some guidance, and any time Shannon was making decisions she didn't like she would call me. My life was better because she was part of it.

“ When I was 5 or 6 yrs old I went to live with my Grandma Donna. She was the best Grandma ever. I feel so lucky to have been loved so much by her. She was so kind, patient, and understanding. We would go for walks around the neighborhood and I would fall down sometimes, as I was born with very mild cerebral palsy. She would always help me right back up and we would keep walking. She taught me all the names of the flowers and styles of houses. We would go to Garibaldi at the Oregon coast in the summertime and we would walk to the bakery for a treat and then walk to the dock to see if we could see Grandpa's boat.

As I grew up, she always made me feel better when I was sick, helped me with my homework, proof reading my assignments, taught me how to write cursive, speak and write "correct English", always gave me good advice, and made sure I was ok whether I was near or far away.....even though she didn't agree with some of the decisions I made in my life. Oh man, my list could go on and on. Grandma always thought of others and tried to do her best in everything she did with much kindness and care. She never missed a key moment or a special occasion.

Grandma Donna made an impact in every heart she touched. She was the sweetest great grandmother, loving my children just as much as she loved me.....or maybe even more (if that's possible)! She truly was the best Grandma ever and I feel extremely blessed to have been by her side until she took her very last breath. Now she is dancing to Conway Twitty with the angels. May she rest in peace. I will love you forever and ever Grandma!!! 💕

“ While Jeannie recovered from knee surgery, I helped care for Donna. I enjoyed her company. Donna would walk around her home and pick up a treasure and tell me about its history and how it came to be one of her prized possessions. It was like that with a photo, a quilt, a birdhouse, any knickknack. Or even a book! Donna talked about her kids, grandchildren and could name all of them! She loved her quilt with the grandchildren's picture on it. I loved it and listened patiently as she named every child for me.

I am grateful to Jeannie for giving me the opportunity to care and grow to love Donna. I am honored to have known her.

Rest in Peace, Donna, I love you.

My Grandma will be missed. I know she is with the Lord now and I am truly happy for her (and him.) She has her true form now with our loving Father, no pain, no aging, no tears and nothing left to heal because there is only our fathers perfect love and home. One of my proudest moments of walking out my faith and relationship with God is tied to my Grandma. She prayed with me and accepted Christ and we had many conversations about God and I treasure those memories. I was blessed to know my Grandma as an Adult and got to have her in my corner for 44 years of my life so I'm grateful for that. Thank you Jesus for making her and and thank you for taking her home.
