

Donna Rae Tryon

October 16, 1948 - February 24, 2024

Born in Heppner, Oregon, beloved daughter of Raymond and Lenna Osborne in 1948. The family bounced around the state, finally coming to rest in N.E. Portland around 1954.

Donna attended Rockwood grade school, then graduated Centennial High in 1966 and on to graduate Oregon Beauty College. After a time, settled as a bookkeeper for First Interstate Bank corp, retiring after 20 years.

In the interim, was briefly married and blessed with a beautiful daughter, Jenny, who, born with spina bifida passed too soon. Eventually divorced, she moved to Vancouver WA., joining her recently divorced mother. Both became loyal members of the Fourth Plain Church of the Nazarine.

Donna passed unexpectedly, February 24th, aged 75. She was preceded by her mother in 2015. Donna was loved and will be dearly missed. She is survived by brother Robert.

Services and interment at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, time and date to be announced later.

“ Condolences to the family of Donna. Donna and her mother were very dear friends of ours when we lived in WA state. We stayed in contact with them after we moved away, but I had not heard from Donna for the past few years and wondered why she stopped corresponding. I knew Lenna had passed away in 2015.
