“ Doris always had a smile on her face, a warm hug and an ear if one needed to unload. She shared her life experiences, no matter how tough, to help someone else see that there is hope for change. A light has been dimmed here on earth but there is a brighter light in Heaven, we on earth see it as a star at night.

“ The last time I saw Doris was just a day after her diagnosis. She was cracking wise with us and crocheting a baby blanket with the softest, softest yarn ever. I just wanted to sit at her feet and curl up into that soft blankie. Along with our trips to Kauai, this is the memory I will hold close.
