

Doris Mary Smith

December 1, 1918 - May 7, 2010

Doris Smith, a resident of Vancouver, Washington, was born December 1, 1918 in Revillo, South Dakota to Thomas and Gertrude Crowell. She is one of 10 children. She moved to the Sweet Home, Oregon area in the late 1930's with her family and soon after met Clinton Smith of Springwater, Oregon. She married him on August 18, 1941 in Vancouver, WA. Doris was a home maker. She worked seasonally at Del Monte cannery in Vancouver. After retiring, she volunteered at SW Washington Medical center for a number of years. She was a member for many years at Glad Tidings Church. Doris was preceded in death by her husband, Clinton in 1972. She is survived by her sons, Paul, Warren and Vernon, all are from Clark County. She has six grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great grandchildren. She will be missed greatly by her family, but they are comforted by the knowledge that she is with the Lord and some day they will be re-united.
