

Dorothy Lorraine Eller

September 19, 1927 - February 18, 2015

Dorothy succumbed to Leukemia after outliving her diagnosis by 3 years. She prided herself in her thriftiness. She and husband Ken enjoyed an active retirement traveling the world. They played volleyball daily into their 80's and frequently went dancing. Dorothy graduated from Fort Vancouver High School. She was a homemaker most of her life, sold Avon products for many years and real estate for a few years. She was born in Newman Grove Nebraska and then moved to the Vancouver area with her parents Delmar and Ethel Woods when she was a child. In her early years she worked at the Vancouver ship yards building baby flattop carriers during World War II. Ken was in the Navy (from Simms Montana) and came to Vancouver to pick up a ship, they met at a roller skating rink in Portland. Dorothy is survived by sons Denny and Bob, daughters Diane Price, Janet Oseth and Debbie Abrams, 11 grand-kids, 15 great grand-kids and 3 great great grand kids. She was preceded in death by husband Kenneth of 66 years, a brother and a sister. Dorothy enjoyed Sewing, Quilting and Crosswords. She was a member of the Elks and Happy Wanderers. Grave site service will be at Evergreen Memorial Gardens 1:00 PM 2/23/15

“ We met Ken and Dorothy in the mid 1960s, and it was through a volleyball group. We enjoyed many evenings with them at the Elks and American Legion as well as fishing at the coast. We always made it a point to stop and visit them if we were near Indio during the winter months. Ken and Dorothy...what a great pair! Gene and Janet Ritter
