

Dorothy May Hancock

May 26, 1920 - March 21, 2013

DOROTHY MAY HANCOCK May 26, 1920 ~ March 21, 2013 Dorothy May Farmer Hancock, 92, resident of the Mallard Landing Assisted Living facility in Battle Ground, WA, for the past four years, passed away on March 21, 2013. She was born May 26, 1920 in Altoona Township, SD to Louis E. and Edith A. (Goodburn) Farmer. Dorothy's family moved to Clark County, WA in the late 1920's. She attended Vancouver schools, graduating from Vancouver High School in 1939. Dorothy married Casey Hancock in 1940 and they lived in Portland, OR for several years. They moved to Ridgefield, WA in the early 1950's where they lived for over 30 years. In retirement years, they moved to Hazel Dell where she resided until four years ago. Dorothy worked for DelMonte Cannery and Jantzen Knitting Mill. She was a member of the Vancouver Moose Lodge for many years where she enjoyed many friendships. Dorothy was an active member on the bowling team, marching unit, and a special group of friends nicknamed the Gray Panthers. Dorothy loved her family and enjoyed many friendships from Hazel Dell and Mallard Landing. Survivors include her daughters, Donna (Bob) Prucha of Vancouver, WA and Sharon (Ed) Casteel of Battle Ground, WA; daughter-in-law, Martha Hancock of Ridgefield, WA; nine grandchildren; 11 great-grandchild; and four great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Casey; son, John; three sisters; and one brother. A memorial service will be held on Sat., April 6, 2013 at 12:30 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, 1101 NE 112th Ave., Vancouver, WA. Visitation on Fri., 12-9 p.m.

Donations may be sent to Hospice SW.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 03:48 PM