

Dorothy Lenora Harder

August 18, 1936 - September 14, 2013

DOROTHY LENORA HARDER August 18, 1936 ~ September 14, 2013 "She was an intelligent and kind woman with a strong moral compass who truly embraced what life offered her." Dorothy Lenora Harder of Brush Prairie, WA, passed away peacefully at home on Sept. 14, 2013 at 77 years old. She was born on Aug. 18, 1936 to Jack and Lenora Schreiber in Oregon, where she grew up in Coos Bay, exploring the woods and the coastal waters, and fishing. Dottie's life-long interest in nature began and was nurtured there. As an adult, Dottie moved to the Vancouver/Portland metro area. Her work encompassed a variety of professions, reflecting her far flung interests and aptitudes. In 1961, Dottie moved to Clark County onto a large property that provided her many years of exploration in the woods and creeks. She also treasured the abundance of wildlife she found there. Dottie met and married the love of her life, Robert Harder. They lived happily there for the remainder of their lives together. Dottie worked many years in the Clark County Sheriff's Office, where her can-do attitude, practicality and compassion were obvious. She took immense joy in raising a family with her husband. She enjoyed horses and riding, German Shepherds, gardening, sewing, cooking, reading and crafting. Dottie is survived by her husband, Robert "Bob" Harder; sons, Gordon "Gordy" Overbaugh and Theodore "Ted" Harder; and her sister, Jacklyn "Jackie" Marlowe. Dottie will be sorely missed by those who knew and loved her. A memorial service for Dottie will be at Evergreen Memorial Cemetery on Fri., Sept. 20, 2013 at 3 p.m. Reception following at same location. - See
