

Dorothy M. Nicley

December 11, 1924 - June 22, 2020

Dorothy M. (Schmick) Nicley died peacefully on June 22, 2020. She was born at home in Endicott, Washington on Dec. 11, 1924 to C. G. and Hattie (Meineke) Schmick. Dorothy was the fourth of seven children and grew up with her siblings on the family homestead in Endicott.

After graduating from high school, in 1942, she attended Washington State College for two years, then transferred to the University of Washington where she graduated in Education in 1946.

Dorothy taught school in Issaquah, Washington for one year, then moved to Colfax, Washington where she married Wallace Nicley in 1947. They've lived there and had their two sons, Warren and David. Dorothy worked for the county of Whitman for 30 years.

In 1977, they moved to Stevenson, Washington for two years and then to Vancouver, Washington until the time of their deaths.

Dorothy did many years of volunteer work and was affiliated with Trinity Lutheran Church, was a member of PEO chapter FC, she enjoyed playing cards, reading and spending time with her friends.

She loved her family and looked forward to their visits and enjoyed their time together.

Dorothy is survived by son, Warren and his wife, Lisa and son, David and his wife, Karen; four grandsons; two step-grandsons; two granddaughters; nine great-grandchildren (with two more great-grandchildren on the way); her sister, Lorraine Beardemphpl; and many nieces and nephews who are all special to her.

Her husband Wally, preceded her in 2000.

There will be no funeral.