“ My family lived across the street from the Hilligoss family, then they moved into the larger house just next door to that one. We moved from 20th Avenue in 1975. Higs was my Orchestra teacher; my brothers band teacher. Dorothy was a wonderful lady and Mom. Sweet, sweet lady. Peggy was several years younger than me, but I loved that little girl! I gave her a doll of mine. Tiny Tears, if I recall. And Doug was such a nice kid. Again, several years younger than me, but a nice kid. He was a couple years younger than my brother, Ron. My thoughts and prayers are with both Peggy's family and Doug's family.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Doug's passing. He can now rest and be pain free from now to eternity. He was a kind and generous man. He cared about (all) the childrens education and would do whatever he could to help out. He will be missed by so many. God bless you and Madison and comfort you both in your time of sorrow.
