

Dustin James Whalen

January 7, 1990 - March 13, 2010

"He was a wonderful caring person who was always ready to help." Dustin James Whalen of Vancouver, WA, passed away on March 13, 2010. He was born in Portland, OR on Jan. 7, 1990 to Steven and Cynthia Whalen. Dustin loved paintball and snowboarding, and he lived to ride his motorcycle and be with his many friends. He brought lots of laughter and joy to all of us. He loved his baby niece, Leilani, who brought him so much love and happiness. Dustin is survived by his parents; brother, Brandon Whalen; and sister, Nicole Jarneski (Brent).

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:34 PM

BA

“ Dear Whalen Family, I was very sad to hear about the loss of your son Dustin Whalen. He was a buddy of mine that I played online games with. (Even if it was online) We have been friends online for well over 3 years. We use to play video games together and talk from midnight until sometime the next day. What I liked about him is how energetic he got when we played. Most times while we played together what would happen is that he would get so hyped up over the game that he had to get told to quiet down. (This has happened more than once). I have been noticing his loss greatly everyday seeing as how we would waste time together gaming pretty much everyday. Your Son Dustin Whalen is truly one of a kind. While I know the words that I express are only a small gesture of support, I want you to know that his life has touched many peoples hearts as it has mine, and that you and your family will be in my thoughts.
Sincerest Regards Bobby "Ech0" Andre

Bobby Andre - April 04, 2010 at 12:00 AM

BP

“ Dustin was a great guy, i knew him by his online name of railin. He was always fun to play against and was very competitive and will be missed greatly.

Brian Petres - April 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

JS

“Dustin was a smart, caring, and funny guy who I played online games with. Even though I never met him in real life I could tell he was a special person from hours of hanging out late nights on ventrilo. All of us gamers that crossed path's with him will always remember him. I wish your family the best in these tough times. - Jonathan "Sp3c" Sarkies

Jonathan Sarkies - March 20, 2010 at 12:00 AM

AY

“Dustin "railiN" Whalen u were 1 of my closest friends online... we shared alot of really fun times together I am still honestly just in shock about this whole thing U never really think about how precious someones life is until they are gone.I have been finding myself just thinking about How I will never be able to hera ur voice again or ever be able to frag heads with u in counter strike or crack jokes in vent like we use to...What really crushes me is u are still idling afk in vent =(Seriously bro we had some of the best times ive ever experienced online together let alone irl Dustin I want u to know that u will never be forgotten and someday we will hangout again I promise bro I love u man my prayers are with u and your family . Andy "0V3RKiLL" Youmans

Andy Youmans - March 20, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SM

“I cant find the right words to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your son. Maybe because there just isnt any words to make it feel any better. You are in my thoughts and prayers. May GOD be close to you during this time of sorrow!

Sharlene Matteson - March 18, 2010 at 12:00 AM

GF

“ I told him he should not get a street bike as his first vehicle. He didn't listen.

Galaxy Fairy - March 18, 2010 at 12:00 AM

EC

“ Sorry for your loss, time will help to heal the soul, God Bless You in your time of sorrow.

Everett Culbertson - March 18, 2010 at 12:00 AM

DB

“ Dustin you always looked for ways to make things better. You will be missed a lot.

Don and Brenda Boitano - March 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM