“ I met Ed for the first time in Montana, a few weeks after starting to date his son, Shane. He immediately started teasing us about having kids, even though his granddaughter Ashleigh was soon to be here. That teasing and openness started a great friendship and lots of Saturday golf games. Ed's curiosity for others really stood out, as he was always asking about others and genuinely interested in everyone and what motivated them. I miss his teasing, his quick wit, his love of his grandkids and the Lions. Football just won't be the same without him. Honored to be a part of the family and thankful for all the fun trips and time we got together. You are missed.

Love, Colette
