“ Barb - Your dad was such a unique man, full of so many of life's experiences. Imagine all things that caught his eye over the years and the thousands of miles he traveled! From a small ranch in southern Idaho to protecting his country during WWII to driving across the countryside and back very close to where it all started almost 94 years ago. There were some great times in his life: hunting, fishing, driving, horses, good books, a good pipe, a hearty laugh after telling a story. But the greatest loves in his life was his family: his loving Liz and daddy's little girl, Barb! He was so proud of you! He lit up like a Christmas tree in your presence. You knew him in a unique and personal way. You knew him as Dad. Uncle Ed is resting, telling stories of his journeys all of our loved ones who've gone on before. Thank you for sharing him with all of us, allowing us to remember him in our own special ways. While you are heartbroken now, strength comes from knowing what a wonderful life it was and how blessed we all are for being a part of it. Peace, comfort, strength, good memories -- may they all be yours today and everyday. My God holds you tenderly in the palm of His hand...rest a while.
