In his own home, Bruce was born April 24th 1932 in Vernal, Utah. He had an idyllic childhood, fishing, swimming in the local pond, and playing with the farm animals. In his youth he excelled at sports including basketball, football and track. He also loved hunting deer and elk with his family.

“ Bruce, you'll always have a place in our hearts. You were a master teacher and we will relish the memories of the Institute classes (the White House) we took from you. With your quick witticisms and sense of humor, there are many memorable quips you used in your daily conversations. Even though you hailed from Vernal, that was certainly close enough to warrant a connection to Craig, Colorado! Knowing you and your wonderful family has certainly added a dimension of goodness in our life.
Til we meet again,
