

Eleanor Genevieve Whiteley

June 11, 1918 - October 9, 2015

ELEANOR GENEVIEVE WHITELEY June 11, 1918 ~ October 9, 2015
Eleanor Genevieve Whiteley, 97, died Fri., Oct. 9, 2015, at The Quarry in Vancouver, WA. She was born to John and Londine Lidberg on June 11, 1918 in Minneapolis, MN, where she spent her childhood. Eleanor married Roy Whiteley on Sept. 10, 1946 in Fosston, MN where they farmed until the Fall of 1956. She moved to Kent, WA with Roy and their two sons. They lived in Kent until the Summer of 1990 when they moved near family in Vancouver, WA. After Roy's death in 2002, she moved to Kamlu Retirement Home until July 2015, and then to The Quarry, where she lived until her death. Eleanor is survived by her two sons, Gary Whiteley and David (Osa) Whiteley; three grandchildren; Daniel (Elin) Whiteley, Diana (Michael) Lowe, and Amanda Whiteley; and three great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Roy; parents; and two sisters, Marion Lidberg and Jeannine Anderson. Services will be held Fri., Oct. 16, at 12:30 at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Vancouver, WA. Please sign her guest book at: www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:29 PM

“ I am thinking of you in this time of loss. Would like to be there but because of distance and other issues am unable to. Praying for your family during this difficult time.

Cherri Anderson - October 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM