

Eloda Ruth Henry

December 19, 1925 - January 4, 2017

Eloda Henry, age 91, met Jesus face to face on January 4, 2017 at the Eagle Valley Meadows care facility in Indianapolis, Indiana. She was born on December 19, 1925 in Lacrosse Wisconsin and was reared by her grandparents, Oliver and Julia Olson. Eloda began entertaining family, friends and visiting company at age five by singing and dancing on the living room coffee table. At age sixteen, she perfected her singing talent with voice training. Eloda became a Christian at a young age. Her singing gift was a useful tool as a pastor's wife and worship leader. Eloda completed several college courses including interior decorating, architectural design and child psychology. She was the mother of ten children and made a career out of raising her children. She loved gardening, crossword puzzles, music, all people, and was always looking for an opportunity to give. She will be remembered for her gift of giving, sense of humor and her career of motherhood. Eloda was preceded in death by her first husband, Loren Urseth, her second husband, Walter Henry and her daughter, Seri Urseth. Eloda Henry is survived by her six daughters, Judy King, Mary Smiley, Susan Brewster, Alyce Ann Urseth, Ruth Russell, Cayce Reynolds, and her three sons, Markus Urseth, Karl Urseth, Billy Henry and sixteen grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren. Memorial Service will be held Saturday March 4, 2017 at 3:00 at Evergreen Memorial Gardens.

“ Hard to put into words all the memories with her but my favorite times were going out to eat after church and her sense of humor. I helped her packk for one of many moves and she was amazed I had most of her house packed in 4 hours. I will cherish all the times spent with her and miss her singing.
