“ We shared so many great times in the model A club. I was always giving Leroy a hard time, and he was always good for a laugh. Whenever I came over he would tell Woofie to attack me (jokingly), he told me he trained him to be an attack dog, and the dog always just gave me kisses. He would just shake his head.

My grandfather Bert had so many good times working on the model A together with him. Leroy was always calling to check in on my grandfather. He was a caring friend.

Nick and I purchased the roadster from him, just days before his passing. We will drive it on many tours in memory of him and Sandy, he was so well loved in the club.

He will be missed.

“ Leroy was a good man. He got me started at the rose float. Dropped everything to go give a personal recommendation at a place I'd applied at for jobs. Great member of the car club. And a good friend all around. ”

“ I met LeRoy and Sandy so many years ago building the Battle Ground Rose Float. We became fast friends with many laughs between us. LeRoy with his long arms and tall stature was always the one called upon to do the things up high with never a complaint. He became the chicken wire installer because of those long arms. When any of us tried to work with it we looked like we had been in a battle with a rabid cat but LeRoy seldom even needed a band-Aid. He was always there to lend a hand if someone needed it. Most of the time we laughed but one particular time I thought I would have to kill him. It involved 10 bowling balls and a hippo. I still have nightmares over that. He enjoyed being a bell ringer for the Salvation Army at Christmas time normally stationed outside of Fred Meyers. Saying hi to all the people he knew. As a truck driver with certification to be able to haul fireworks he delivered to all the TNT firework stands. LeRoy you got to keep that full head of hair after all and I will miss all those phone call check ins. RIP my friend

“ Always a gentle man of few words, he loved to serve others, and always displayed the kind of wit that made us smile. He will be so missed by so many. Rest in peace Leroy.

“ LeRoy was always one of my favorites! A tall man with a great sense of humor and many talents. We worked together for many years on the Battle Ground Rose Float and always had a great time. Parades with Sandy and LeRoy in their Ford Model A. Decorating for the Hazel Dell Parade in our garage a couple of years. Celebrating Sandy and him on New Years Eve for their anniversary. Supporting him in good times and bad. I wish we had seen more of each other in the past few years, we lost touch when they moved to Washougal from Battle Ground. Rest in peace LeRoy and may Sandy remember all of the great times that the two of you had. Love to both of you, Marlene Brown
