“ I've known Emory for a long time, since I was a kid. I'm 43 now. I've always known Emory to have a smile on his face and love in his voice. One of the most caring and patient person that I've ever known. He will forever have a place in my heart and he will be missed.

“ I worked with Emory at Federal Highway. The obituary describes him very well. He was also a consummate professional and was highly respected by all who worked with him.

“ Emory was always a welcomed member of our immediate family. His gentle empathetic nature and intellectual curiosity made him a joy to converse with and his dispensing of clear logical wisdom and subtle sense of humor invited fun conversation from adults and children alike. He will be so missed from us still on this earth but I am pleased that he gets to hang with my parents Wendell and Tomiko again and the rest of us will see him again down the road. He provided a good life for his wife (my sister Rebecca) and many great memories for the rest of us. Rest in peace my friend.
