“ One of the most generous and caring individual i have ever met. I didn't know him as well as some others but the time I spent with Eric and Chayney was some of the best times Ive had. Rest in peace!

“ Eric, I hope you know how much you were loved by so many. It was amazing to see all of the people that came to your service on Saturday. So much support and love. I hope you watch over Lori, Tim and Chad. Also- look out for the rest of us. In my thoughts non stop babe. I hope your smiling down on us with those huge pearlys.

“ I'm going to miss you a lot man. You were a great friend, full of great advice, and wise beyond your years. Even after I moved across the country you remained such a good friend I could always count on. I just hope I half way returned the favor. Already miss ya man, Rest In Peace. You'll never be forgotten. - Todd

“ Rest in peace Eric; i'm glad I got to know you and serve with you. Your humor always brightened our moods on watch and in port, and your memory will live on in all of your shipmates, family, and friends. I'm sure you're in a better place now, and i wish you Fair Winds and Following Seas.

“ To Eric, smooth sailing thru warm seas from now on shipmate. Your soul is free. To Eric's family, you are all in my heart during this difficult time. I offer you my deepest condolences. Very sincerely and respectfully, Mark S. Yates, Gunners Mate Second Class, USN, 1976-1980

“ I am so sorry for you lost, Eric and I served onboard the USS Lake Champlain together and I for one can say he was a very cool guy from the start. Hands down one of the funniest people I've ever met and I am glad that I had the joy of meeting him. People always ask me what do I like most about the navy, and my answer to them is, it's not the money, not the travel but the different types of people that I get to meet. And meeting people like Eric makes my every hard time, down to the last second in the military worth it. Rest In Peace Brother...
